

Thinking About College?

Need to figure out what you want to be when you grow up?
We can help!

APTITUDE

...a person's natural ability to do something

Students often squander time and money in college paying for classes they don't need or enjoy. We can help. Our highly trained professionals can help you gain a better understanding of your student's natural born gifts and how these gifts may translate into a career.

ABILITY

...a person's capacity; their maximum potential

Understanding your student's aptitudes may not be enough. Knowing your student's capabilities can inform both your choices and your expectations. Our staff can help you see your student's maximum potential and suggest a course of action related to both school and career.

ACHIEVEMENT

...a person's current level of accomplishment

What is your student's reading level? How do their writing skills compare with others? Are they strong enough in math to make it through college? We can answer all these questions and more.

Our recommendations can address:

- Career Choice: Each person is uniquely gifted and should pursue a career built upon their personal strengths
- School Selection: The large State University isn't for everyone. We can help you decide the type of education your student needs to be successful
- Class Selection: The class load taken on often overwhelms many students. We can help you set your expectations according to your student's capacity.
- Money Management: Many students today find themselves steeped in credit card debt by the end of their sophomore year due to lack of planning. Our team of experts can help you gain a better understanding of your student's personality, offering suggestions for money management
- Time Management: Structure is the key to surviving college. Is your student impulsive? Inattentive? Easily distracted? We can assess these areas of weakness and provide suggestions.
- Self-Care: College burn out is high. Students often find time to do everything except the things that truly feed the soul. Our team of experts has years of experience dealing with depression, anxiety.
